

Building Community with Compassion, Service, Diversity, and Spirit

We express compassion through caring, love and support for others.

We serve by promoting our principles and purposes through leadership, giving and action.

We are inspired by diversity to accept, respect and celebrate differences and interdependence.

We grow in spirit through our religious experiences, inquiry, education, reflection and transformation.

Minister's Gleamings

I don't think there is anything more amusing or insulting to human intelligence than the weekend "infomercials" that dominate morning television. They seem to get more and more frantic and absurd as the holiday season approaches. It has been said that laughter is fertilizer for a contented soul and mine has never been so well fertilized as it was last Saturday morning!

The marketers have finally exceeded in surpassing the outer limits of absurdity as we now have for our own perusal, at a very cheap price of $49.95, a housekeepers guide and video for turning your daily chores into a full fledged home exercise program. Sounded like a great idea until our budding -actress- star-to- be entered stage right dipping and bowing to the drone of her oversize upright vacuum cleaner, caressing every corner of her spotless home with the finesse of a mime being helplessly towed by a front end loader. Her convoluted dance was almost worshipful, as if this machine possessed some kind of aura she could not resist. Through the living room she sailed, bowing and dipping under every chair, tossing cushions in the air and sucking up their micro-mites with such pleasure that I was tempted to dust off my own vac and join her.

Next she weaved her way toward the stairs hopping up and down each one like an arthritic kangaroo, waltzing over the tangled hose as it snaked between her ankles threatening to uproot both her and the vac launching them both tumbling down her immaculate stairs in a tangle of fractured ecstasy. She made it up the stairs, hose, cord, vac and attachments without missing a single hop or beat of "The Flight of the Bumblebee" playing in the background. I imagined myself teetering and tumbling head first into a tangled messy heap of woman and machine gone wrong.

In the end of the 'dumbomercial' our heroine cleaned her whole house, got the dinner on the table and had her ball gown cleaned... burned enough calories to pig out for a month and flopped, into her mite-free Barc-o-Lounger for an endless nap. All in a matter of 1 minute! I think I would rather have human dance partners, stow the vac, save the energy, get the cleaning over with minus the antics and there would still be some consciousness left over for a stroll the woods.

As this time of giving thanks approaches, may our preparations be appreciated for what they are, and the video will not be included!

Sincerely, Holly

WE NEED YOUR HELP

The Membership Committee is looking for folks who would occasionally do the membership table on a Sunday.

This does NOT mean that we are asking you to become a member of the Membership Committee (although we most certainly welcome you as such!)

The task is brief and pleasant and affords you a chance to become acquainted firsthand with prospective new people and make them feel welcome. We are trying to make a list to draw from to perform this nice service occasionally.

See Phil Klein, or sign up at the office.
THANKS!! Phil

President's Report

Several exciting events: We have six new members since the beginning of the 2009-10 year. Our nursery is open every Sunday, which allows families with babies and toddlers to attend services – and attracts new families. There are many young children attending RE classes. The Fun Committee has planned a number of events – please consult the calendar in this newsletter. New study groups have begun meeting. We have had several concerts given in our sanctuary by musicians who are among the best in New York State – NYS Baroque and the Susquehanna String Band, to name just two. More concerts are coming.

Perhaps most important of all, for our future, is that Paul deLima has proposed, and the Board has enthusiastically approved, a plan for the growth of First UU, both in membership and in financial health. Paul is forming a task force which will get started immediately. Please see the article about this initiative in this newsletter.

Jeff Libby, who has worked before as our custodian, has returned. We welcome Jeff back. He does fine work!

Julie Piato has reluctantly resigned as Clerk of the Board. All of us on the Board miss Julie's energy and ideas. We regret that she cannot continue. The Nominating Committee will recommend a new Clerk and, if one of the current Board members takes over as Clerk, a new Board member will be nominated to take the seat vacated by that new Clerk. A midyear election is not necessary for an unexpired term. Those appointed will serve through June 2010.

Your other trustees are Diana Bellini, Vice President; MaryGail Perkins, Treasurer; and Trustees Tanya Gesek, Cynthia Kieber-King, Marilyn Lyman, Ruth Mudge, Grant Reeher, and Eileen Taveniere. Rev. Holly Baylies and DRE Sonja Lamicela are ex officio members. Jim D'Aloisio is Financial Secretary. Jim Vossler is Chair of the Finance Committee. Please feel free to discuss your ideas, inspirations, and concerns with any of us.

Money - To keep things going, we need your help. Our finances continue to be of great concern. The budget is at the subsistence level, and to sustain even that, we need income every week to pay salaries and bills. The Board and I encourage all of you to keep your pledge payments current. If you possibly can, please prepay your pledges through the end of December 2009. Thank you in advance,

PEOPLEMAP TRAINING WORKSHOP: UNDERSTANDING YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Presented by Dr. Chris Allen, Psychologist, Certified Life Coach and Certified Peoplemap Trainer

Saturday, January 16th and 30th from 1p.m. to 4:30 p.m. (7 hours total) in the Parlor

Participants will complete a brief personality questionnaire that has a 95% accuracy rate of predicting your main personality type: Leader, People, Task, or Free Spirit. Participants will learn about the three natural strengths of each type as well as a "weak spot" of each type, called the "Achilles' Heel". When understood the Achilles Heel can be turned into a "learned" strength. You will also learn to spot the personality type of others and how to speak their language. In addition, most people are a combination of two types and you will learn how to use the strengths of your combination to achieve important personal goals.

The training is an interactive experience in learning how your personality style affects all of your relationships. It is a fun and down-to-earth program with no fancy jargon and skills each person can directly apply to their personal and work lives. Two previous Peoplemap Training workshops at First UU were wonderfully successful: 100% of the participants rated the workshop and the presenter as "Excellent". Comments included "a huge learning experience about myself and how to overcome what is holding me back in my life" and "a wonderful avenue for improving efficiency and civility in the workplace". Participants indicated that it would help them in their family life as well as at work and in church relationships.

Each participant will receive a self-scoring questionnaire, a 30-page personal workbook, and a 156-page Peoplemap book by its developer, Mike Lillibridge, Ph.D. A maximum of 10 participants can be accepted. Fees are $35 a person and are for the costs of materials only. This training normally costs around $150 per participant and is a limited opportunity offered to our UU members and friends at this reduced fee.

To register or for questions, please contact Chris Allen at 449-4088 or cmallen@twcny.rr.com.

CRAFTS POTLUCK (Just in time for the holidays) Sunday, November 15, 4-7:00 pm

Join UUs for an afternoon of creativity and socializing! Bring a few simple materials (most of which you probably already have around the house) and some veggies or herbs for “stone soup.” We’ll provide some instruction and guidance (and make the soup), and you might even walk away with a holiday gift made from stuff you already had! (Think green!) Possibilities include: crocheting, candy-making, card-making, and eco-chic plastic pouches--made from plastic bags! (If anyone could lead simple candle-making, give us a call!) Please sign up on the Big Board in the Fellowship Hall so we know how to plan, and for info on what materials to bring. Sponsored by your FUUSS Fun Team! Questions? Call Radell at 426-1294.

Youth Religious Education News

Youth Group Update:

The Youth Group has been very busy this year, and practically bursting at the seams. Many of the youth are ready to spread their wings a bit – plans are being made for social justice possibilities and community outreach events. If you would be interested in lending support for any of these types of projects, stop by the Teen Room and say “hi”. Recently, Nick Lamicela attended a Youth Chaplain Training event in Amherst, NY. Thank you, Diana Bellini, for attending this with Nick. Some of our recent graduates have been seen around the building: Jenn Bowman has been helping out in the nursery while she takes classes at OCC and Vanessa Bellini has been home for a visit from Hampshire.

And, finally, thanks to your appetites, the Youth Group raised $170 at the Pizza Sale. That money will help Youth group members pay for attendance at youth conferences: both social cons and working cons (like the Chaplain Training). These help the youth make deeper connections to UUs from around the state and have a positive impact on their connection to UU as they head off to college.

We thank you for your support and input. The Youth Group.

LOUDER THAN WORDS WISH LIST

Living our Faith involves reaching beyond ourselves to help others. As we have all heard “Actions speak louder than words.” Several times a year our children take a day away from Sunday school classroom style learning to put those lessons into practice with our “Louder than Words” projects. On November 15, they will be making Rough Patch Baskets. These baskets will be assembled and then given to members in our church community who may be going through a Rough Patch in their lives. We will work with the Caring Committee to identify those in need, and the whole community can help by donating one of the following items. Please contact Eileen Taveniere (etaveniere@yahoo.com) or Nadine Fernandez (nfernand@syr.edu) to let them know what you will bring. Donations can be dropped off in the Fellowship Hall anytime between now and November 15. [Items Needed: 1 bag Flour, 1# Butter, 1 bag Chocolate chips, 10 Quart size canning jars, 1 box/bag Barley, 1 bag/box white rice, 1 bag Dried split peas, 1 bag Dried lentils, 1 box/ alphabet pasta, 1 box/bag small twist shaped macaroni, 1 bag of snack size snickers, 1 bag of Werthers candy, Votive candles, Moss or shredded paper to line baskets, Clear Basket Wrap, Plastic Wrap]

CHECK OUT OUR NURSERY !!!!

We have had a great response to our new nursery. We are seeing an influx of new families with babies who are more comfortable knowing we have a welcoming baby-safe space for their children!

Now that it is here, how can we make it better? We're having a baby shower!

See Ruth Mudge, our new child care coordinator for the wishlist.

The Green Corner

We Ate Well!

First UU has completed its third year as the only local church hosting a pod for Community Sustained Agriculture (CSA). Twenty-eight families received 19 shares of fresh organic produce every Tuesday for twenty weeks. Good food included many kinds greens and squash plus potatoes, radishes, turnips, beans and much much more. Some participants also received egg and fruit shares. One week, when the produce was late, a call to the farm indicated the food had been delivered to the church on Waring Rd. Fortunately, someone figured out that St. Sophia's fit that description so several participants went down the road to retrieve our produce. All ends well as we completed the season with another fine potluck here on Sunday, October 25. The Green Sanctuary hopes that more members of First UU's congregation will join to join for the 2010 season. It's healthy for us and helps our planet too. Marilyn & Fred Lyman, pod leaders

On Monday, November 16 the second part of Green Sanctuary's series Confronting Climate Change asks the questions "What's the worst that can happen?" and "Do we really have to decide which side is right in the science debate?" Join us at 7:00 pm in the Parlor for a spirited discussion!

The third and final part will be Monday December 14, when we'll deal with policy priorities.

EMERSON AND TRANSCENDENTALIST TALKS

These talks will continue on TUESDAY NOVEMBER 17TH AT THE HOME OF RICK AND GRACIA SEARS - 6 BRADFORD HGTS ROAD, SYRACUSE. Beginning at 7 PM, there will be two simultaneous offerings. The group that has been attending can watch lectures about Emily Dickinson and Walt Whitman and how they were influenced by the transcendentalists. We will conclude with a lecture on "The Legacy in 20th century and beyond" which highlights the many contributions this group has given us over time.

For those who are interested in the earlier lectures, we will show (in another room) these talks. If you are interested please contact Gracia or Rick at 445-1242.

UNIVERSALIST STUDY / WORSHIP GROUP

On September 25th a group met to explore the possibility of having a study worship group that will focus on our Universalist roots which include Christianity and other religions (note the church window). This group plans on meeting regularly and combining readings with times for worship. We are still working on our format so stay tuned. Any questions please see or

Moveable Feasts / Portable Potluck

On Friday evening, Nov. 13 we are having our first Portable Potluck of the year. Several times a year, about 6 or 8 people gather in a host's home to share a meal, good conversation, games (if the group so desires)--music, or whatever. Each single or couple brings an assigned dish to share, and the host will call you in advance to tell you your "food assignment", the time, and his/her address. Sign up by Sunday, Nov. 8. You will have your "assignment" four or five days in advance. Also know that this is NOT a gourmet event--any "assignment" is readily available in any supermarket if food preparation is not your "thing". In the past we've had good times becoming acquainted with others we see on Sunday mornings. Be assured that this is NOT just for couples--singles are most welcome. If you have questions, call Lee Murray--446-2315. She would be most willing to include you in a group via the phone if you wish.

EACH YEAR AT THIS TIME, FRIENDS AND FAMILIES IN OUR CONGREGATION PARTICIPATE IN THE UU TRADITION OF GUEST AT YOUR TABLE.

By bringing home a beautiful Guest at Your Table box, families and individuals learn about how the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee puts our shared principles into action in the United States and around the world. Through a potent combination of advocacy, education, and partnerships with grassroots organizations, UUSC promotes economic rights, advances environmental justice, defends civil liberties, and preserves the rights of people in times of humanitarian crisis.

Sharing our blessings through Guest at Your Table ensures that UUSC's human-rights work continues, while building UUSC membership. UUSC members are vitally important, as UUSC is an independent, membership-based organization that receives no funding from the UUA or the U.S. government.

Through the booklet Stories of Hope we connect with people in the United States and around the world who are working hard to advance human rights — and protect their own rights — in partnership with UUSC.

In each household, the Guest at Your Table box is placed in a prominent spot, often at the family meal table. When family and friends gather to enjoy their blessings, they can reflect on the contributions of their Guests to the movement for universal human rights and share generously. Each week, we can choose a different story to read, bringing our Guests to life and helping to celebrate our own rights.

If you would prefer not to bring home a box, you can take a donation envelope or support UUSC directly online at www.uusc.org.

First UU's Social Justice Fund (The Mellor Fund)

Ticket price: $25

Jen Chapin's music is jazz-tinged urban folk — story songs that search for community and shared meaning, powered by the funk, soul and improvisation of the city. Critics have hailed her work on albums Linger (2004) and Ready (2006) as “thoughtful.. worth-savoring” (People), “smart, observant, lyrically deft, politically aware and emotionally intuitive” (Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel), “addictive” (Boston Globe), “supremely confident, slightly off-center, and instantly compelling.” (River City Reader) and “brilliant.. soulfully poetic” (NPR). JazzTimes has called her “a first-rate storyteller” while Relix regards her as “one of the freshest voices singing today.”

“.. A touch of jazz, some blues, a drop of '70s-style pop and generous amounts of folk. It's a fluid mix that defies easy categorization. Holding it all together are her cool airy vocals and introspective, sometimes amusing lyrics.”

FUUSS GROWTH TASK FORCE

The Board of Trustees recently identified the growth of FUUSS as a necessary, key objective for this year. This growth includes congregational size, outreach, and increased financial resources.

To support this initiative, the Board directed the formation of a FUUSS Growth Task Force to explore, formulate, and eventually implement the elements of a growth plan. Paul deLima has agreed to lead this task force, but as they say, he needs a “few good men and women” to participate in this effort.

If you are interested and can help, please contact Paul directly at pwdelima@twcny.rr.com or H 446-5459 or C 427-2167. Prior marketing experience is nice but not necessary; the only requirements are your ideas, enthusiasm, and commitment. The first organizational meeting will be announced shortly.
